OVERVIEW

-Caddie training is open to boys and girls who are at least 14 years old.

-Caddie Training Classes are held every season during the week of the public school April vacation.

-Candidates should attend at least 2 of the 3 classes offered, but attending all 3 is highly recommended.

-Candidates should call the Tedesco's Golf Shop, 781-476-2230, in early April to sign up for the classes.

Becoming a regular part of our caddie program is very competitive. On average, we train between 30 and 50 candidates each spring. There also are 10 – 20 veteran Tedesco caddies that typically return.

Golfers and guests are required to always wear proper golf attire on the golf course and at the practice facilities per the Tedesco Country Club Member Handbook.

Proper attire for men and boys consists of any golf specific apparel, slacks, knickers, golf or Bermuda type shorts, tucked in collared shirts, turtlenecks or mock turtlenecks, sweaters, appropriate golf outerwear, and golf specific apparel designed and manufactured by a golf company.

Casual attire for women and girls consists of slacks, capri pants, traditional golf shorts or skirts, golf dresses, sweaters, collared shirts, collarless shirts with sleeves or sleeveless shirts with a collar, appropriate golf outerwear, and golf specific apparel designed and manufactured by a golf company.

All hats, caps and visors are expected to be worn properly, bill forward.

The following are prohibited on the golf course regardless of gender:

Tank tops, mesh shirts, sports jerseys, t-shirts

Halter tops, tube tops, tops with spaghetti straps

Exposed undergarments, bare midriffs or bare lower backs

Denim, gym/athletic shorts, cutoffs, or short shorts, cargo, painters or camouflage pants or shorts
